

PURPOSE

The purpose of this document is to confirm DPFT's agreement with the Client relative to the tax services DPFT will perform. DPFT will prepare the Client's federal and state individual tax returns for the above-listed tax year(s) from the information submitted by the Client. All tax returns will be electronically filed unless paper filing is required. DPFT's work in connection with the preparation of the Client's income tax returns does not include an independent verification of the data submitted, although DPFT may ask the Client to clarify some information.

VERACITY OF INFORMATION

The Client hereby confirms that all the information submitted to DPFT is correct and includes all income, deductions, and other information necessary for the preparation of the above returns. Furthermore, the Client acknowledges that it is their responsibility to provide all the information required for the preparation of complete and accurate returns.

DOCUMENT RETENTION

The Client agrees to retain all the documents, canceled checks, and other data, including mileage logs, which form the basis of income and deductions. These may be necessary to prove the accuracy and completeness of the returns to a taxing authority. The Client has the final responsibility for the income tax returns and, therefore, should review them carefully before signing.

AUTHORIZATION TO USE PROFESSIONAL JUDGEMENT

The Client authorizes DPFT to use professional judgment in resolving questions where the tax law is unclear, or where there may be conflicts between the taxing authorities' interpretations of the law and other supportable positions. Unless otherwise instructed by the Client, DPFT will resolve such questions in the Client's favor whenever possible.

CONSENT TO USE TAX INFORMATION

The Client authorizes DPFT to use their tax information for administrative purposes and for quality or peer review. Input or review can be done in office or by secure remote access by DPFT employees and/or seasonal contract preparers. All paid personnel have access to the Client's tax information for administrative and input purposes in preparing the Client's return as well as for quality review purposes.

SUBSEQUENT REPRESENTATION

The Client's individual tax return(s) may be selected for review by the taxing authority. If the Client's return represented by this engagement is selected for review, DPFT will provide the Client up to ½ hour, to review the documentation and said represented return in question, at no charge. After reviewing the notice(s) by the tax authority, DPFT will advise the Client of the course of action DPFT recommends. Additional subsequent representation on this tax return will be charged at a rate of $250/hour.

FEES/PAYMENT

DPFT's fee for these services will be based upon the amount of time required at DPFT's standard billing rates plus out-of-pocket expenses. Any services for hourly accounting, tax correspondence responses, amended return preparation, or tax representation will be billed separately. All invoices are due and payable upon presentation.

RETURN PICKUP

Each tax return engagement entitles the Client to a 30-minute meeting when the Client picks up the tax return. The purpose of the meeting is to review the tax return and answer any questions the Client may have about the return. If the Client needs additional meeting time, the Client may request it at a tax consulting rate of $150/hour.

CONFIDENTIALITY

All financial documentation of the Client is kept private and confidential. Release of this documentation by DPFT to any third party will need to be requested in writing by the Client.

EXTENSION AUTHORIZATION

The Client agrees that if the tax return is not completed by April 1 of the filing year, an extension of time to file will be electronically filed. If an electronic extension cannot be processed, DPFT will prepare a paper copy of the extension form and mail via standard, not certified, USPS services to the IRS. DPFT will not be held liable by the Client for lost mail or IRS processing errors of the paper filed extension.

The Client agrees that the prior year's tax due/refund will be reported as the estimated amount owed or to be refunded on the filed extension unless the Client provides DPFT with different figures to be submitted prior to April 1 of the filing year.

Due to IRS regulations that limit knowledge sharing, DPFT will not be notified if an extension is approved or rejected. By signing below, the Client agrees not to hold DPFT liable for any extension, regardless of a received electronic acceptance of extension request.

PRICE QUOTE

The following is DPFT's price quote range for the Client's individual tax return(s) for the declared year(s). Payment is due at the time the tax return is picked up and all deposits are non-refundable.
